

ORAL PRESENTATIONS

Mr Harri Mattila, Häme Polytechnic, Finland: "Dry toilet - a solution to meet new requirements for on-site sanitation in Finland."

Dr Marielle Snel, IRC, The Netherlands: "Women, well being, work, waste and sanitation (4WS)."

Ms Susanne Balslev Nielsen, Assistant professor, Technical University of Denmark, Denmark: "Changing flows of human nutrient: Potentials and barriers of human nutrient recycling in a Danish context."

Ms Sanna-Leena Rautanen, Tampere University of Technology, Finland: "Exploring toilet culture where there are no toilets."

Mr Naoyuki Funamizu, Hokkaido University, Japan: "Temperature effect on pathogens decline in the bio-toilet system."

Dr Ezekiel Nyangeri Nyanchaga, Senior lecturer, University of Nairobi, Kenya: "Performance of EcoSanitary toilets in Kenya."

Er. Megha Raj Regmi, Nepal: "Technical development of dry toilets."

Dr Judith Thornton, Centre for Alternative Technology, United Kingdom: "Twenty-seven years of in-situ compost toilet research in the UK."

Mr Sat Damodaran, Executive director of Gramlaya, India: "Shifting gears in sanitation."

Mr Kuo-Ti Chen, Centre for environmental, safety and health technology, Taiwan: "Dry toilet design for national park in Taiwan."

Ms Elke Müllegger, University of Natural Resources and Applied Life Sciences, Vienna, Austria: "Reuse. Reduce. Recycle."

Ms Susanne Boom, IRC, The Netherlands: "Urine diversion toilets in the Philippines: the case of Tingloy."

Prof D.Mashauri, University of Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania: "Performance of ecological sanitation toilets in Tanzania."

Dr Manoj Nadkarni, India: "Fecal sludge use in high density urban environments."

Dipl.Ing. Wolfgang Berger, Germany: "Results in the use and practise of composting toilets in multi-story houses in Bielefeld and Rostock."

Ir. Joop van Bergen, The Netherlands: "Geographical environmental management. The toilet as an ecological and economical key item in sustainable development."